Open Publishing and Open Scholarship in the Big Ten
A Perspective from Faculty Authors and Researchers 1.6M+ publications since 2000

100k+ publications annually cited 3x more often than “closed” pubs over 50% are made open every year yet only 18% are open at the time of publication

What are Big Ten Libraries doing with open publishing?

pursuing a multi-faceted open scholarship strategy Balancing the journal marketplace  ◆ Opening the scholarly monograph Strengthening academy-owned infrastructure  ◆ Elevating marginalized and unheard voices opening content with commercial publishers Immediately open & available to the public Authors keep their rights  ◆ No fees to publish, no caps, no limits supporting “alternative” publishing business models “Diamond Open Access” and other no-fee models developing and hosting open publishing platforms supporting the global development of open infrastructure

Where are we going?

Guiding Star for the Libraries of the Big Ten

In order to advance a just, trustworthy, scalable, and sustainable open knowledge ecosystem, make open, more equitable scholarship our lead purpose.
Our purpose today

Faculty lead in this space -

In the libraries, we do a lot in supporting, advocating, advancing

Today we have convened two panels, to pause and bring faculty voices into the room
Two faculty panels this morning
